Isn't there something to do with Alberta requesting assistance? I could be entirely wrong so please correct me if I'm mistaken.

Public Safety has largely been lead on the convoy high level. When you say RFA, I'm assuming you mean sending the CAF into Ottawa? We have no formal request from the province in at this time. When it comes to the trilateral tables:

- All Canadians have a right to free and peaceful assembly under the Charter – at the same time, hateful symbols and rhetoric have no place on Parliament Hill or anywhere in Canada.
- Since the start of this event we have seen the brandishing of hateful symbols, the desecration of sacred spaces like the National War Memorial, and reports of threats and harassment against Ottawa residents and businesses.
- Let us be clear – this type of behaviour is unacceptable and unCanadian.
- In response to the City of Ottawa's recent state of emergency declaration, our government is proposing to convene a trilateral table with our municipal and provincial counterparts.
- This table will build on the consistent conversation and collaboration that has taken place since the start of this event, and will ensure even stronger communication between all partners.
- We look forward to engaging further with all levels of government as we continue to support the Ottawa Police Service in their work as the police of jurisdiction.

Subject: Updated Lines/Information

UNCLASSIFIED / NON CLASSIFIÉ

Hi Annie and Caroline!

Hope you're doing well ☺

Reaching out because I was hoping you could send me your latest lines/information as it relates to the convoy, the RFA (?), and the joint table that's been convened. This would be more for our office's awareness, not public use, so the latest update would be much appreciated!

Many thanks,
Nadine
